ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime, and shall observe the standard conditions of supervised release, recommended by the United States Sentencing Commission and adopted by this Court.
2. The defendant shall refrain from the unlawful use of controlled substances and submit to a drug test within fifteen (15) days of release, and thereafter to random drug testing, not less than three (3) samples during the supervision period and not to exceed 104 samples per year, under the coordination of the U.S. Probation Officer. If any such samples detect substance abuse, defendant shall participate in an in-patient or an out-patient substance abuse treatment program, for evaluation and/or treatment, as arranged by the U.S. Probation Officer until duly discharged. The defendant is required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (co-payment) in an amount arranged by the U.S. Probation Officer based on the ability to pay or availability of third party payments.
3. The defendant shall participate in a vocational training and/or job placement program recommended by the U.S. Probation Officer.
4. The defendant shall maintain full time, legitimate employment and not be unemployed for a term of more than 30 days unless for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons. In lieu of employment, however, the defendant shall perform community service work during the supervision period at a private non-profit or public facility to be selected and under such arrangements as the Probation Officer of the court may determine, until he obtains such full-time employment.
5. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Officer access to any financial information upon request, and shall produce evidence to the U.S. Probation Officer to the effect that income tax returns have been filed within his place of residency as required by law.
6. The defendant shall submit her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, [computers, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030 (e)(1), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media,] or office to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or of evidence of a violation of a condition of supervised release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of supervised release. The defendant shall warn any other occupant that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
